

Italy

Country Measures related to the 2019 NCoV outbreak

		Last updated	Source
Government Entry / Exit Requirements	Travel to Italy is still allowed, however, as of 10.03.2020 the entire country will be considered a protected zone. Passengers who travel to Italy should bear in mind that they will be either prohibited to enter other states or will have to stay in self-isolation for at least 14 days.	10.3.2020	PM's Office
Airport Entry / Exit Measures e.g. Screening
Airline Requirements
Operational Requirements	All flights to mainland China, as well as to Hong Kong, Macau and Chinese Taipei have been suspended.	11.2.2020	Italian MFA
Additional Comments	https://www.iatatravelcentre.com/international-travel-document-news/1580226297.htm
Key Links	http://www.viaggiaresicuri.it/contenuti/FOCUS%20CORONAVIRUS.pdf

The information included in this document is provided for the benefit of IATA's members. Where information is based on unconfirmed reports or unofficial sources this is clearly stated. While the information is correct to the best of IATA's knowledge at the time of publication and is being reviewed and updated on an ongoing basis by IATA staff, given the rapidly evolving nature of the international response to the 2019-NCov outbreak IATA cannot guarantee its accuracy and can accept no liability for any errors or omissions. IATA reserves the right to add or change information at any time. Links to third party websites of third parties are offered as a courtesy. IATA expresses no opinion on the content of the websites of third parties and does not accept any responsibility for third-party information. You should make your own independent inquiries before relying on any information or materials contained on these pages.